CabFest 2022

PRESENTED BY QUEENSLAND CABARET FESTIVAL

Sweet Life

BY LEA LEVER

Brimming with all things sugar and spice, this show brings together the bittersweet moments of life, featuring songs such as xxxxxx, xxxxxx and xxxxxxxx. With a toxic blend of tangled flavours for you to savour, Sweet Life will leave you wanting more.

DATE Thu 17 Feb
TIME 8pm
TICKETS $32 - $42 + booking fee

The Salty Sirens

Roll on down for a raucous singalong of sea songs old and new with The Salty Sirens. These Sapphic sailors and their ragtag band of pirate mateys will lead you on a musical journey through tales of shipwork, daring adventure, defiance and debauchery.

DATE Thu 17 Feb
TIME 8pm
TICKETS $32 - $42 + booking fee

La Voix Humaine Starring Amber Evans

BY FRANCIS POULENC AND JEAN COCTEAU

Opera meets cabaret to tell this deeply human story. Originally penned by poet and film director Jean Cocteau in 1927, La Voix Humaine (The Human Voice) has inspired numerous retellings. Featuring a tour de force performance by solo soprano Amber Evans, this version is Francis Poulenc's thrilling one-act opera.

DATE Thu 17 Feb
TIME 8pm
TICKETS $32 - $42 + booking fee

Breathing new life into the cabaret canon, Cabfest '22 calls up from the depths the misfits, the oddballs, the eccentrics... the brilliant, the bright, the beautiful, and the bewildering.

You are Pathetic!

BY SANFELIU

Electro-acoustic troubadour Sanfeliu plays Ludwig's Sonata Op.13 like you've never heard it before in this gripping multi-media stage piece about music, difference, and finding a better fit between humans, nature and technology.

DATE Fri 18 Feb
TIME 9pm
TICKETS $32 - $42 + booking fee

String: An Odd Evening with Tyrone and Lesley

This dashing duo has played their ukulele and double bass at the Sydney Opera House, headlined in the UK, New Zealand, and festivals all over Australia. They'll make your heartstrings ring with this concert meets slide night, featuring hits and premiere songs from their new recording String.

DATE Sat 19 Feb
TIME 7pm
TICKETS $32 - $42 + booking fee

The Thin White Ukes

The songs of David Bowie are reborn in a parallel acoustic universe in the loving hands of the Thin White Ukes. The Melbourne trio travels deep into the art-rock visionary's songbook of smash hits and astounding obscurities, each lovingly re-assembled for precision acoustic strings and breathtaking three-part harmony.

DATE Thu 17 Feb
TIME 8pm
TICKETS $35 - $42 + booking fee

Blue Bones

BY MERLYNN TONG

Playlab Theatre's multi award-winning production, Blue Bones returns for another season.

When a woman finds scars left by her ex-boyfriend of many years ago etched into her bones, she is compelled to unpack her past and discover how he got under her skin

Based on the true story of two teenagers' romance as it blossoms then warps in the heat of bustling Singapore, Blue Bones combines multiple characters, Kung Fu and arcade games in a whirlwind story of the wreckage felt across the years.

A PLAYLAB THEATRE PRODUCTION, PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH METRO ARTS

DATES Wed 2 Feb – Sat 12 Feb

TIME 7:30pm

TICKETS $39 - $45 + booking fee

Lotion

CURATED BY TAYLOR HALL

Lotion brings together the artworks of five artists who use embodied and soft forms to consider the materiality of healing, empathy, and well-being in relation to the skin.

Expanded notions of our surface are revealed, as a permeable, porous entity that exists between the self and our experience of the physical world around us.

PRESENTED BY METRO ARTS

Artists: Alannah Dair, Bella Deary, Evangeline Sines, Molly Smith, Zara Dudley

DATES Sat 15 Jan - Sat 5 Mar

VENUE Gallery One, Gallery Two + Window Gallery

Volume: Bodies of Knowledge

CURATED BY TORIKA BOLATAGICI

Featuring new commissioned work by nine multidisciplinary First Nations, Black and global Indigenous artists, Volume: Bodies of Knowledge invites you to consider the body as an archive, and how embodied frequencies, cadences, and densities guide our movement through neo-colonial spaces.

PRESENTED BY METRO ARTS

Artists: Denise Chapman, Shivanjani Lal, Emele Ugavule, Ema Tavola, Kelly Ka-Lai Chan Jane Chang Mi, Laniyuk, Stéphanie Kabanyana Kanyandekwe, Lia Pa'apa'a

Face to Face

BY EMILY WELLS

Moxie, passion, drive; whatever you want to call it, Leila's got it.

Leila has sacrificed a lot to get where she is but when an unexpected guest arrives from the home she abandoned to chase her dreams, everything she thought she knew is suddenly thrown back in her face.

Face to Face is an intimate drama about two women navigating the complex effects of disconnecting from Country, and criticism from your community, your family, and above all, yourself.

Metro Arts Future Fund: A fund for future art.

How does it work? In 2019, we sold our former premises. We then put the majority of that money into a fund to exist in perpetuity to support our community of artists and audiences. But we need your help to grow the fund and the future.

To do this you can:

- Make a tax-deductible donation;
- Consider the MAFF in your regular giving activities
